Mr. ~~Howard~~ Wood,
C/o American Numismatic Society
Broadway at 160th St.,
New York, N. Y.

My dear Howland:

Enclosed is Railway Express notice from Flushing. Will you please take care of the forwarding of the package to whatever address you desire.

I hope you had a good week-end, and with all good wishes for the whole family, I am as always

Sincerely,

JRM/M

Dear John:

Your note was on my desk when I reached hom yesterday, and as little Elizabeth happened to be in Flushing, she hastened to the Railway Express and got the clubs. On behalf of her, although I think she will write you, I wish to thank you for sending these.

Sincerely yours,

July 14, 1931.

Dear John:

Grace was telling me yesterday that you would probably be at the camp Friday night, leaving Philadelphia presumably after business hours. If this is so, we can go down together and I will meet you at the Grand Central Station near the Information Booth, in the center of the concourse. Trains leave for South Norwalk, daylight saving time, at 5:35, 6:02, 6:08 (slow train) 7, 9 and 10 P. M. Whatever you decide to do let both Grane and me know. Trusting to see you soon, I remain

Very truly,

HW:JG

Dear John:

Your letter just at hand and I will be on the lookout for you at the Grand Central Station so as to take the 7 P. M. train Friday evening.

Very truly,

Dear John:

I have just received my telephone bill with the toll charges. The three Philadelphia calls are: $1.05, $.75 and $1.75, ($3.55). You may deduct twenty-five cents from this and hand this quarter to Grace, as we found nothing she did not intend to leave.

You may or may not have read in the paper of the thunder storm that visited Westport Monday night. The town itself was a sad mess. At least 1000 trees were blown down right around Westport. It escaped our lot entirely, passing about two thousand feet south of us.

Very truly,

HW:JG

Dear Howland:-

I am enclosing my check for $3.55. You better square up with Grace yourself.

I was awfully sorry to hear about the storm, but am glad it missed you.

Please give my regards to all of the family, and believe me as always

Very truly yours,

Mr. Howland Wood,

Broadway between 155 & 156th Sts.,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Howland:-

In overhauling a bunch of old stuff, in preparation to moving, I came across my old collection of autographs, among which I have some letters of Daniel Webster and other noted characters.

I also have a manuscript copy of the speech delivered by Robert C. Winthrop on the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the American Mercantile Association in Boston, and a number of other of his letters.

If this collection of autographs is of any value I should like to dispose of it. Can you give me any suggestion as to how to do this?

Very truly yours,

JRM:L

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear John:

Many thanks for your check, and I will send Grace her quarter.

As for autographs, I think I would be a poor adviser. There are one or two autograph dealers in Philadelphia. Most old book dealers and old print dealers handle these, but I think one or two specialize in these. Possibly a few judicious questions will put you on to the best persons. Also you might try Goodspeed's in Boston. Like everything else, autographs are a little off just now. There have been, in the past two or three years, more of such things offered than the dealers can get rid of and unless the thing is an A No. 1 offering, I do not think dealers are very anxious to increase their stock at the present moment.

We are all getting along finely at the camp. Elizabeth has her driver's license and she and Charlie were pinched for speeding, within two days.

Very truly,

HW:JG
